

The Back Stabbers

Hey you know I have a lot of boyfriends...

Do you have any? I bet no...

Break time

Don't you think she is such a show off??

Ya she loves to show off to us

OH NOO!!

WHAT?!

I can't believe what I heard.

I wanna get my revenge on them.

Curse of lies

There is a rumor of a curse when you put a name of person, who you hate, on paper and put that paper between the toilet flip and toilet bowl, at the 4th toilet at 4 o'clock in afternoon on the 4th floor, the person you wrote on the paper will get sick or worse—die!!

After school

Kaori
Maaya

They're just joles about me.

After Anna did the curse of lies, Kaori and Maaya got sick and started to not come to school. Anna was worried. She thought that the curse was the problem. So she went to that toilet that she put their names on, and took the paper out and threw it away. The next day, Kaori and Maaya came back in as normal. They said they were just sick by a popular disease. Anna felt safe. But she thought she should tell them so after they all went to the toilet, and at the hall way...

The week after should I tell or not?!?!?!?

If I tell them, will they get angry??

Teacher!! Anna is not concentrating!!

After school

Umm... Maaya, Kaori

Yeah?

Umm... sorry I've been backstabbing you guys.....

It's ok but, we also backstabbed you too...

Can you forgive us??

THE END!!
